

MAKES SUPREME SACRIFICE IN FRANCE

IRA M. LAWSON REPORTED KILLED IN ACTION.

Casualty List Carries Names of Chattanooga Boys as Killed or Missing.

Private Ira M. Lawson, well known young man, whose home is in Wauhatchie valley, has made the supreme sacrifice "over there". He was previously reported as missing in action, but his name appears in Saturday's casualty list corrections with American brave sons who were killed in action.

Private Lawson was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lawson. The father is a farmer and conducts a little store at the intersection of Wauhatchie pike and the Wauhatchie road. Two brothers of the young man are in France and one of them has been wounded. One of the brothers wrote that Ira was reported as missing in action.

The hearts of loved ones have been filled with anxiety since they received the news about the son and brother being missing. The tender sympathies of a host of friends will go out to them in their crushing loss. Ira M. Lawson was a brave and courageous soldier and died serving the country and flag he loved so dearly.

Sgt. Isaac Eaves. In Saturday's casualty list corrections appears the name of Sgt. Isaac L. Eaves, previously reported as missing in action but now listed as having returned to duty. Mrs. Emily Eaves, mother of the young soldier, has just received a letter bearing the date of Nov. 4, in which he stated that he was in an officers' training school many miles behind the lines. Sgt. Eaves was gassed on Aug. 4 and spent six weeks in a hospital. Four days after reporting to his company for duty one of Fritz's bombs played havoc with a stove and sent him to the hospital with his face and hands literally filled with shrapnel splinters. While his wounds were not serious they were very painful and it was two weeks before he was out again. In a letter to his mother, dated Oct. 20, he told of visiting his brother, Sam Eaves, former Chattanooga football star who is now an instructor in an infantry school. Sam won his commission while with the marines.

Sgt. Eaves, familiarly known as Joe, also played the Chattanooga football team and won the 300-yard dash for McCallie in a track meet. He was awarded a medal for winning this race.

Soddy Boy. Russell Davis, who is listed as having returned to duty after being previously reported as missing in action.

Carlton Randall. Carlton H. Randall, another well known young Chattanooga, has made the supreme sacrifice. He died on Oct. 29 as a result of wounds received in action, according to official notice received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Randall. Carlton was a graduate of Central High school and one of the first to enlist in Battery B in June, 1917. He formerly resided in Charlotte, Mich. He was a splendid young man, a loyal son of Uncle Sam and a true soldier.

This order was issued on account of so many men being sent back to the states. This order applies to all postoffices throughout the country, and one should be careful that the return address is on the envelope, as the letter is liable to never leave the point at which it is mailed.

Denmore, director-general of the United States employment service, will not appear before the grand jury in San Francisco, called in connection with a report made by Denmore to the Thomas J. This statement was made in reply to a report from San Francisco that Prosecuting Attorney Fickert and McCarthy are planning to demand Denmore before the inquisitorial body.

GETTING READY TO GO BACK HOME

DEMobilIZATION ORDERS RECEIVED AT POST.

Seventeen Hundred Officers and Men to Be Discharged. Col Gregory in Charge.

All is in readiness to begin the vast work of demobilization of both officers and men at Chickamauga park. Full instructions concerning the order of demobilizations, the organizations to be demobilized and the men who are first to be discharged have been received. The order is general, and the work to proceed with the demobilization has not yet been received, although it is expected momentarily, with the exception of the two or three organizations, and even the work of disbanding these has not been begun. Under only demobilization order about 200 medical officers from Camp Greenleaf are being discharged. The work of giving the final physical examinations and filling out the necessary papers for the discharge of officers was begun this morning. The first list of men to be discharged contains ninety names of the older men and the remaining 200 will receive their papers the first of the week.

To secure an honorable discharge, there are a thousand little things to attend to, which must be attended to as nearly as many different officers. Frequently during the day officers were heard to remark, "Well, where do we go from here, sergeant," to the various sergeants in charge of the filling out of papers. They are then put on the right road and directed to the next step by the patient noncoms.

Men who will soon be given honorable discharges are members of the company No. 1 (1,025), development battalion (640 men), and sanitary corps (135). Orders for the discharge of the members of the dental company have already been received, but on account of a little uncertainty on the part of the officers as to the status of the company, a wire has been sent to the War Department for further particulars. It is thought that the work of disbanding this organization will be begun early in the week and will be hastened to completion. Orders for the disbanding of the development battalions have also been received, but under instructions received all but about 100 of these men are included in tradesmen whose services are needed and who will, therefore, be kept in the service for the time being.

It was stated that everything is in readiness for the demobilization orders which are anticipated and the men will be discharged at the rate of about 200 a day until the work is well under way when the rate will be greatly increased.

Col. Gregory, officer in charge of the discharge, is in command of the camp, stated that the regular routine work would be pursued at Camp Greenleaf until the demobilization orders arrive. The medical officers' training schools are engaged in the regular routine instruction work just as if demobilization orders were not expected, and the work is undertaken by the officers with but little lessened enthusiasm.

Col. Robert U. Patterson, of the general staff, arrived at Camp Greenleaf this morning on a regular inspection tour and, together with Col. Bligham, commandant of Camp Greenleaf, the greater part of the day was spent in an inspection of the entire camp. The inspections are held for the dual purpose of inspecting the camps and for conveying to the commanding officers the views and desires of the general staff. The inspecting officer will report the findings of his visit to the staff at Washington.

STORMY HOUR IN BERLIN

Soldiers' Council Makes Severe Charges. Berlin, Nov. 29.—(A. P.)—The soldiers' council of Greater Berlin, at a stormy plenary meeting today, expressed dissatisfaction with the appointment of an executive council of eight men by adopting a resolution appointing a representative from each of the seven regiments stationed in Berlin to weigh charges against the executive council, and if necessary to re-form the organization. The charges had been formulated by the soldiers' council of the Third army corps, which had alleged that the executive council had "shamefully debased the high aims of the council, failed to effect co-operation with the democratic parties, and failed to protect the eastern border and hindered every orderly and practical work."

ANNIVERSARY RECEPTION TO DR. HAROLD MAJOR

HUNDREDS ATTEND EVENT AT FIRST BAPTIST.

Ministers and Laymen of City Offer Congratulations on Happy Occasion.

A reception was given Friday evening in honor of Dr. Harold Major and his wife at the First Baptist church. The occasion was in honor of the first anniversary of Dr. Major's pastorate of the church. Dr. Major, who is now pastor of the First Baptist church, was born in the First Christian church; Dr. J. B. Phillips, of the Tabernacle Baptist church, and W. G. M. Thomas, of Centenary church, representing the laymen. Dr. Major responded in his usual happy way and made a plea for church unity in a very neat way by saying that instead of saying "your church" and "my church," people should say "our church" and "we fellows." Before closing his remarks, the church as a living force for Christian service was eloquently set forth.

An orchestra from Camp Greenleaf discoursed music throughout the evening. Following the program, the guests, who numbered several hundred people, were served a refreshment course of ice cream, cake, coffee and mint in the dining room. Mrs. E. B. Wise and Mrs. Percy Jackson poured coffee from a beautifully decorated table. The color scheme was white and yellow, and the members of the various church choirs sang. A bevy of young girls assisted in serving the refreshments. The evening was one of informality pervaded the evening.

It has been the general understanding here that the real peace conference would not start until the conference of the world and the United States had been held for six weeks. It was then that a history so rich in magnificent pages, Great Britain added an incomparable chapter not only of military and naval glory, but of moral strength and human greatness. She realized at once that hostilities would be long and would demand of the British empire the work of all of her dominions and all of her colonies and from one end of the world to the other a cry of affection was heard.

"It is not only a finer spectacle than that of the people scattered over the face of the earth rising at the same moment and with the same spirit in order to fly to the aid of the mother country."
